Rossi Toscani

PoggioargentierA™

Poggio Argentiera was founded in 1997 with the purchase of the Adua farm, a property which went back to the early 20th century when the Maremma marshes began to be drained. The 15 acres (six hectares) of vineyards began to produce grapes for a Morellino di Scansano and the new cellar was built. In 2001 the property was enlarged with the acquisition of another farm, Keeling, located in Baccinello, a hillside zone in the township of Scansano.

MORELLINO DI SCANSANO DOC 2019 49.00

(100% Sangiovese) This up and coming area around Grosseto is starting to produce excellent wines. This is from the young vines which produces an excellent cherry fruit filled example of Morellino.

The Buonamico Estate is set southwest of Montecarlo, in the Cercateja area, and it covers a surface of 100 hectares, 48 of which are dedicated to specialized vineyards. The winery was founded by renowned restaurateurs from Turin in the early 1960s, with the purpose of furnishing their restaurant with Montecarlo wines. Today the Estate, owned by the Fontana Family, has expanded in terms of both vineyards and wine cellar. While preserving the essential characteristics of a traditional winemaking style, "Buonamico" has now become one of the Montecarlo's leading wine producers.

SUPER TUSCAN

SANGIOVESE, SYRAH, MERLOT, & CABERNET SAUVIGNON

"Super Tuscan" is a term used to describe red wines from Tuscany that may include non-indigenous grapes, particularly Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Syrah. They coined the term "super Tuscan" to distinguish their wines from the inexpensive, low-quality wines that were associated with the term vino da tavola

SASSICAIA

ask for the price

(85% Cabernet Sauvignon, 15% Cabernet Franc) Dark chocolate and supple red berry fruits on the nose with plenty of raspberry and cassis. The palate's quite fine, juicy and lithe with good balance, good drive and great depth. Toasty oak builds through the finish, showing a strong earthy thread and a core of crisp tannin.

ORNELLAIA

ask for the price

(45% Cabernet Sauvignon, 38% Merlot, 10% Cabernet Franc, 7% Petit Verdot) "Ripeness and equilibrium are the two qualities that can best describe Ornellaia 2009. Born from a vintage which began cool then turned hot, it was necessary to take painstaking care during harvest in order to preserve the grapes' crisp acidity and aromatic complexity. The wine's fragrances are generous and cleanly-defined, with rich, well-ripened fruit, complemented by chocolate and balsamic notes of aromatic herbs. On the palate, silky-smooth and spacious, with glossy tannins. A lively, refreshing acidity lifts a lingering finish."

LE SERRE NUOVE DELL'ORNELLAIA BOLGHERI,

195.00
